

Position Application Information

Learning and Development Officer

This document should be read alongside the Position Description. If you have any questions about this position, please contact Terence Humphreys on terence@twenty10.org.au or (02) 8594 9562.

About the role:

The Learning and Development Officer is a casual role paid at SCHADS L5, working approximately 16-24 hours per month (anticipated but not guaranteed) on a one year, fixed-term contract.

This role is based at the Twenty10 in Chippendale, Inner Sydney although the role regularly delivers training throughout Sydney and sometimes NSW.

Before Applying

In selecting the successful applicant for this position, decisions will be made on the basis of merit. The applicant who is judged to be most experienced and capable of carrying out the duties specified in the Position Description will be offered the position. The decision to appoint will be based on the applicant's written application (which details qualifications, experience and a response to the targeted questions), performance at an interview, on reports received from referees and successful completion of Working With Children and Police Checks.

The Position Description provides the basis for the selection process as it specifies the criteria needed to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position, including qualifications, skills, knowledge and experience.

Preparing an Application

Your written application must stand on its merits. Please address the targeted questions.

There are four steps to applying for a position:

1. Provide a cover letter with an expression of interest. The purpose of this is to indicate why you are applying for this particular position and anything that interests you specifically about the responsibilities of the role.
2. Answer the targeted questions (below) as part of your application highlighting your skills and experience relevant to the criteria in the Position Description. Please keep your response to no more than two pages with a font no smaller than 11. Please DO NOT respond to each of the essential selection criteria.

3. Provide a copy of your Curriculum Vitae (Resume) providing full personal details, qualifications, previous employment and experience;
4. Provide the names of at least two referees and their telephone numbers & email addresses if available. These will only be contacted if you are interviewed.

Applications should be emailed to terence@twenty10.org.au using the subject line: Learning and Development Officer Application, and received by 10am, Monday May 30, 2022.

The successful applicant will be required, on taking up the appointment, to produce evidence of any academic qualifications.

Applications received after the closing time and date or which do not meet the requirements outlined above will not be considered.

Targeted Questions for Learning and Development Officer

Please answer the following targeted questions as part of your application. Please keep your response to no more than two pages with a font no smaller than 11.

1. Please provide a general paragraph summarising your experience in health education and promotion, community capacity building, workplace training and assessment or similar. This should include creating, presenting and evaluating training or educational sessions to a wide variety of audiences, highlighting areas that you see as particularly useful or relevant to working at Twenty10. This should be an overview only, as your accompanying CV should contain details about your specific positions and how long you were in each. If you have experience in other sectors that may have relevance, please feel welcome to indicate this.
2. Twenty10's Learning and Development Officers build the capacity of people in the broader community including workers to be more respectful and inclusive to people within the LGBTIQ+ communities. What are some of the contemporary challenges, systems and public policy impacting LGBTIQ+ people, especially young people? Describe how you remain current with these issues.
3. Please describe an example where you needed to manage multiple competing priorities, deadlines and stakeholders while completing work on time and to a high standard? What organisational and problem-solving strategies do you use to manage competing priorities?

Selection Process

Selection Panel

A selection panel will be established to shortlist applicants, generally including one or two Twenty10 staff representatives, and may include a community partner or board member. The panel will write interview questions, interview shortlisted applicants, contact referees and make the final decision.

Where any member of the selection panel knows an applicant, that member must disclose the nature of the relationship. If the Co-Executive Directors deem the relationship to be a conflict of interest that may impact the panel member's ability to provide a fair and unbiased opinion, the Co-Executive Directors will replace the selection panel member.

Short listing

All applications will be treated as confidential and only members of the Selection Panel will view and discuss applications. In the short listing process, the selection panel will exclude those who do not adequately meet all the essential criteria.

The selection panel has the discretion to interview applicants who may not have clearly addressed all the essential criteria, but have demonstrated potential to fulfill the criteria. This will give the selection panel the opportunity to more fully examine the applicants' credentials.

The selection panel will re-advertise the position if there are no applicants who fulfill at least the essential qualifications stipulated.

Interviews

Interviews will likely be carried out via Teams (or Zoom if preferred) the week commencing June 6th 2022 (likely later that week). If you are selected for an interview, we will advise you in writing.

The interview questions will be standard for all people being interviewed for this position, and will be based on the selection criteria and the job description. The panel reserves the right to ask follow-up questions to these predetermined questions, in order to more clearly ascertain whether the applicant meets the criteria.

Decision Making

The decision to make an offer is based on written application, performance at interview, and successful Referee Checks, Police Check and Working with Children Checks.

A member from the selection panel will contact the successful applicants. Once the position has been accepted, a member from the selection panel will advise unsuccessful applicants.

Equal Opportunity Employment

Twenty10 incorporating GLCS NSW abides by Equal Employment Opportunity principles. Each applicant will be treated fairly and in an unbiased way. Twenty10 is committed to providing opportunities for all applicants regardless of race, age, religion, national origin, disability, bodily diversity, marital status, familial status, veteran status, intersex status, sexuality and/or gender orientation, identity or experience.

By encouraging and sustaining a diverse workplace, we can create a more welcoming and responsive environment to better meet the needs of our service users and workers. We strongly encourage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people of culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds as well as people who identify as LGBTIQ+ or similar to apply.

If You Are Not the Preferred Candidate

We appreciate that preparing an application requires a significant effort, and we greatly respect the interest any person has in working with our team at Twenty10. Of course, there will generally only be one successful candidate. In order to make the application and interview process of value to all those that apply, we are happy to provide you with feedback about your application and interview performance. This may include suggestions about how you might enhance your prospects with future applications, if you request us to do so.
